Herbs that Clear Heat and Dry Dampness

Dampness is characterized by stubbornness. Damp-heat is especially difficult because dampness is a yin pathogen and heat is a yang pathogen.

- Diarrhea, dysentery
- Urination problems (difficult or painful urination)
- Jaundice
- Skin problems (boils, furuncles, carbuncles, eczema)
- Vaginal discharge

These herbs are cold and bitter. Use caution in cases of Spleen deficiency.

These herbs are often combined with Herbs that Drain Fire or Herbs that Resolve Toxicity.
